- We have just added new archival framing to museum quality which includes: frames of a satin luster gold metal in a traditional style from the Nielsen ArtHaus line. A soft cream-colored acid-free rice paper conservation mat, plus an additional white bevel accent that enhances the quality of the photograph.
- Alternative framing (our traditional framing) is available with a high quality painted aluminum frame in a light almond color to match the tones of the photographs. This framing features a 100% acid-free mat cut with a "V" groove in off-white to match the frame.
